Kirkmont Center, Inc. is a 278 acre camp and retreat center in Logan County, Ohio. For more than 50 years, people of all ages have experienced the natural world through the many activities and opportunities that the camp offers. Kirkmont Center is dedicated to outdoor experiences of discovery, learning and wonder.

The grounds at Kirkmont Center include over seven miles of hiking trails, a canoeing and fishing pond, an archery range, a labyrinth, a swimming pool, a low-challenge course, a giant swing, and a climbing wall and ZIP-line. The grounds are beautifully diverse, including wooded areas, former pasture, and a fen.

Kirkmont Center offers four lodges for retreat groups and organizations seeing space for off-site meetings. The lodges accommodate groups of various sizes, from 5 to 55, and can be utilized together by groups with larger numbers. Groups may also enjoy Kirkmont's cabents. Cabents are platform tents with canvas roofs and provide a wonderful outdoor experience.

Summer camps and year round retreats offer youth, young adults and adults with residential opportunities to enjoy the Kirkmont Center campus. Faith-based summer camps offer opportunities to connect with the outdoors and explore faith in a safe setting. Interest area camps provide opportunities for learning in one of a number of interest or academic areas to enhance personal learning and avoid the "summer slide".

The Field School at Kirkmont Center provides learning opportunities for all ages including day and residential field programs for young children, elementary and high school youth; and topical programs or studies for college students and adults. Family outdoor learning experiences are also part of the Field School.
